

Royal Association for Deaf people

Cadent

Your Gas Network

The Royal Association for Deaf People (RAD)

Founded in 1841, the Royal Association for Deaf people (RAD) provides services to deaf people in their first language, usually British Sign Language (BSL) and supports mainstream providers to be more accessible to Deaf people.

RAD SERVICES

Advocacy

Children & Families

Communication Services

Community Engagement

DeafAdvance

DeafAge

Employment

Independent Living

RADvice

TalkMore

YouthAdvance

Do you ever come across someone who is Deaf, deafblind or Hard of Hearing, we can offer one to one support and advice. We specialise in:

- Energy support and advice
- Advocacy
- Translation services
- Information advice and guidance— including support with benefits, housing, debt.

For more information, or to make a referral please email or send a BSL video to:

energy@royaldeaf.org.uk

www.royaldeaf.org.uk | 0300 688 2525

Registered Charity No. 1081949 | Company registered in England No. 3973353